Hello Anthony,

I'm just following up on our conversation from yesterday. At this moment the options are to give up possession of the apartment OR to pay and stop eviction. Your current balance for rent due is $5,588.00 and legal fees are currently at $200.00. The total of $5,788.00 must be paid to stop further eviction proceedings. Payment must be made in the form of a cashier's check or money order (legal fees are schedule to increase by Monday 4/26/2021). Please contact me if you have any questions.

Ok, well when are you planning on sending over the documents? None of these emails have the documents for the payoff or the eviction. You told me and the neighborhood I'm in the surprise eviction process on my porch, so yes please send over the docs to payoff my rent, please.

Please email the docs. I can print and sign them and drop them off.

Thank You

Hello Anthony,

Attached is the 15 Day notice that was served back in March. One copy was delivered to your front door step and a second one was mailed to your address. The time to sign and submit the declaration page has expired. You mentioned to me that you had the money to catch up and pay. If you would like to pay and stay you can still do so.

Hi Anthony,

I wanted to provide you some resources:

1. You may want to apply for the State’s CA COVID-19 Rental Relief Program here: <https://housing.ca.gov/>
2. You may want to call the Legal Aid Society of Orange County (714-571-5200 or 800-834-5001)
3. You may want to call the Fair Housing Foundation at 800-446-3247
4. You may also want to look at the State’s website on tenant protections here: https://housing.ca.gov/tenant/protection_guidelines.html
 - a. Specifically “Other Things You Need To Know” section at the bottom of the page

It may also be helpful to contact these non-profits for some rapid re-housing assistance:

1. South County Outreach at 949-380-8144
2. OCAPICA at 714-636-9095
